6 December 2021

डॉ. बाबासाहेब आंबेडकर यांच्या महापरिनिर्वाणाचे औचित्त साधून आज महाविद्यालयात महापरिनिर्वाण दिन साजरा झाला यावेळी प्रमुख वक्ते म्हणून सुश्री वर्षा श्यामकुळे उपस्थित होत्या. विद्यार्थ्यांना संबोधित करताना डॉ आंबेडकर च्या चरित्राचे दाखले देत त्या म्हणाल्या की वर्तमान समयी बाबासाहेबांचे विचार राष्ट्रभक्ती, राष्ट्रबांधणी सामाजिक समरसता या तत्वातून नव्या पिढीसमोर येणे गरजेचे आहे. यावेळी प्रॉब्लेम ऑफ रुपी या ग्रंथाच्या रचनेचे उदा देताना त्यांनी ब्रिटिशांनी आपल्या “प्रॉब्लेम ऑफ द रुपी” या पुस्तकात रुपयाच्या अवमूल्यनावर आंबेडकरांनी त्यांचे विचार मांडलेले आहेत. स्वतंत्र भारताचे चलन हे सोन्यात असावे, असा अर्थतज्ज्ञ लॉर्ड कान्स यांनी केलेला दावा आंबेडकरांनी खोडून काढला होता. त्याऐवजी सुवर्ण विनिमय परिमाण (गोल्ड एक्सचेंज स्टॅंडर्ड) अमलात आणावे, अशी शिफारस आंबेडकरांनी केली. त्यासंदर्भात सन १९२५ साली स्थापन केलेल्या हिल्टन यंग आयोगापुढे त्यांनी साक्षही दिली. त्यानंतर सन १९३५ साली भारतीय रिझर्व बँकेची स्थापना करण्यात आली. भारताच्या मूलभूत आर्थिक विचारांचा पाया देखील आंबेडकरांच्या आर्थिक विचारांवर घातला गेला.

लंडन स्कूल ऑफ इकॉनॉमिक्स येथे त्यांच्या ‘द प्रॉब्लेम ऑफ द रुपी’ प्रबंधावरून प्रा. जॉन केन्स यांच्याशी मतभेद झाले होते. चलन आणि संबंधित विषयावर त्यावेळी प्रा. केन्स हे जागतिक पातळीवरील अंतिम अधिकारी समजले जात. प्रा. केन्स हे चलनाच्या मूल्यासाठी सुवर्ण विनिमय पद्धतीचाच अवलंब करावयास हवा, या मताचे होते. सुवर्ण विनिमय पद्धतीत देशाच्या चलनाच्या मूल्याची सांगड ही सोन्याच्या मूल्याशी घातली जाते. या पद्धतीचा अवलंब करणारे देश आपल्या कागदी चलनाचे रूपांतर निश्चित दराने सोन्यामध्ये करून ठेवतात. तसेच अशा देशांत सोन्याची किंमत सरकार निर्धारित करते. परंतु सुवर्ण प्रमाण पद्धतीत मात्र प्रत्यक्ष चलनात काही प्रमाणात सोने वापरले जाते. पारतंत्र्यातील भारतात सुवर्ण विनिमय पद्धतीने रुपयाची हाताळणी केली जावी असे ब्रिटिश सरकार आणि प्रा. केन्स व इतरांचे मत होते. आंबेडकरांचे म्हणणे होते की, सुवर्ण विनिमय प्रमाण पद्धतीत चलनस्थैर्य येऊ शकत नाही. प्रा. केन्स आणि त्यांच्या मताचा पुरस्कार करणाऱ्या इतरांना वाटत होते की सुवर्ण विनिमय प्रमाण पद्धतीत रुपयाची किंमत आपोआपच स्थिर होऊ शकेल. आंबेडकरांना ते अमान्य होते. आपले मत सिद्ध करण्यासाठी बाबासाहेबांनी इ. स. १८०० ते १८९३ या काळातील चलनमूल्यांचा धांडोळा घेतला. त्यातून मिळालेल्या दाखल्यांच्या आधारे त्यांनी साधार दाखवून दिले की, भारतासारख्या अविकसित देशात सुवर्ण विनिमय पद्धती अयोग्य आहे. शिवाय या पद्धतीत चलनवाढीचाही धोका असतो असा युक्तिवाद त्यांनी केला आणि ब्रिटिश सरकारवर थेट आरोप केला. आंबेडकरांच्या मते सुवर्ण विनिमय पद्धतीचा अवलंब करून ब्रिटिश सरकार रुपयाची किंमत कृत्रिमरीत्या चढी ठेवत असून, त्यामागे ब्रिटनमधून भारतात निर्यात करणाऱ्यांना जास्तीत जास्त नफा कसा होईल हाच विचार आहे. आंबेडकरांनी रुपयाच्या अवमूल्यनाची मागणी केली. रुपयाची सर्वसाधारण क्रयशक्ती जोपर्यंत आपण

स्थिर करीत नाही तोपर्यंत रुपयाची किंमत अन्य कोणत्याही मार्गाने स्थिर होऊ शकत नाही. विनिमय पद्धतीत चलनाच्या दुखण्याची लक्षणे तेवढी कळू शकतात, तीत उपचार होऊ शकत नाहीत." ब्रिटिश सरकारने चलनाचा तिढा सोडवण्यासाठी रॉयल कमिशनची स्थापना केली. या कमिशनसमोर बाबासाहेबांनी दिलेल्या साक्षीत आपल्याला दोनच गोष्टी विचारात घ्याव्या लागतील. एक म्हणजे आपला विनिमयाचा दर आपण निश्चित करावा का? आणि केला तर अन्यायाच्या तुलनेत त्याचे गुणोत्तर काय असावे? हे दोन प्रश्न मांडले. या वादात बाबासाहेबांनी विनिमय दरनिश्चितीपेक्षा भाववाढ नियंत्रणास महत्त्व दिले. बाबासाहेबांनी त्यावेळी यासंदर्भात जे काही लिखाण केले, प्रश्न उपस्थित केले, त्यातूनच अर्थव्यवस्थेच्या अत्यंत केंद्रस्थानी असलेली 'रिझर्व्ह बँक ऑफ इंडिया' ही एक संस्था जन्माला आली. भारतीय रिझर्व्ह बँकेची स्थापना डॉ. बाबासाहेब आंबेडकरांच्या विचारांवर झालेली आहे. असे विचार मांडले. कार्यक्रमाच्या अध्यक्षस्थानी महाविद्यालयाच्या प्राचार्य डॉ. तनुजा नाफडे या होत्या. आपल्या अध्यक्षीय भाषणातून डॉ. बाबासाहेब आंबेडकरांवर प्रकाश टाकताना त्यांच्या वैचारिक संस्कारातून देश समृद्ध झाला व तो वारसा आपण जपून ठेवला पाहिजे असे मत व्यक्त केले. या वेळी व्यासपीठावर महाविद्यालयाचे उपप्राचार्य मेजर डॉ. मोहन नगराळे उपस्थित होते कार्यक्रमाचे प्रस्ताविक डॉ. श्रीनिवास मानेकर यांनी केले. सूत्र संचालन डॉ. विनोद जिवंनतारे यांनी तर आभार डॉ. सतीश चाफले यांनी मानले कार्यक्रमाच्या यशस्वीतेसाठी डॉ. मंगेश पाठक व डॉ. हुमेन्द्र खांडेकर व राष्ट्रीय सेवा योजना विभाग स्वयंसेवकांनी प्रयत्न केले

Most Beautiful Part of 2021: Students' Parliament

RTMNU STUDENTS' PARLIAMENT 2021; this sounded so amazing to me that I instantly agreed to give the selection trial round. Since I had to qualify it anyhow, I started with the practice. Totally unaware about what was going to happen, I reached the location where the trials were going to be taken. I gave my speech as I had prepared for it so I spoke with confidence. Within a day or two, the result for the trials was out. I was selected. I was very happy with that, yet there was a feeling within which didn't want me to join the Parliamentary sessions. But, I somehow managed to convince myself.

26 October, 2021, that's when a beautiful journey started. I wasn't aware at all that it's going to be a great moment ahead. There, at the Model Parliament, I met many people who were the best selected students of their respective colleges and were the representatives there. Since I always liked to meet new people, I was enjoying getting introduced to the Parliamentarians there. The session started and we took our chairs respectively. Suddenly, I was not seeming to have interest in whatever was going around me although everything was so amazing and worth learning something from. As the day came to an end, I decided not to continue with it anymore. I had made up my mind of not at all joining the Parliament again from tomorrow. Yes, a very foolish decision it was. Guess what, I didn't stop myself from going for the second day. Yes, I joined in for the second day as well. I must say, the one who trained us, our Chair Person, is a man with a cap holding feathers of excellence and knowledge enriched with wisdom. Since the first two days were for our training, I learned a lot about what happens in the actual Parliament and Sir had trained us very well! Then came the third day; The Mock Parliament, 28 October, 2021, this day is always going to have a very beautiful place in the treasure of my memories; I met a Parliamentarian, extremely kind, a down-to-earth persona. She was also having a similar interest like mine; enjoying meeting new people around. I was glad that I got introduced to her! Mock Parliament in itself was fun; the next day was going to be very exciting. I was eagerly waiting for the Sun to set and to rise again for a new wonderful day. Honoured with the presence of great dignitaries as our chief guest, the Parliament started. In every hour, something exciting took place which boosted our interest towards the sessions. Till day four, we became friends with almost all the 111 Parliamentarians. It was absolute joy. Then the day came, the last day, which none of us wanted to be ended but time waits for none. With a mind blowing start of the day, the discussion commenced. As the actual Parliament works, our Parliament also took a similar shape. Although divided in three different groups: Ruling Party, Independent Party and Opposition party; at the end of day five we weren't into divisions anymore. We were like a big beautiful family till then. With a heart full of pride, beautiful memories collected and tears of joy in eyes, we bid farewell to each other and the Parliament got adjourned.

Who was aware that these unknown delegates are one day going to turn into a group of selfless friends? No words for the happiness and joy I received by being there. This proves that no matter whatever you do to be away from particular things, destiny is always going to take you towards the places where happiness resides!

'Scars beautify the victory!'

NONE of us is born to be flawless; everyone has flaws which enriches the achievement for which we worked hard. To be flawless is common between everyone, to have flaws yet ready to face the problems to achieve the goals make a difference. There are times when we start regretting about the flaws which we have, we forget that scars are like the colours to a flower, it beautifies the thing which was once dull.

In a journey towards success, there will be situations when you may feel that you are stuck between and there's no way out. You will blame yourself for lifting up courage to fight with problems which are then not seeming possible to be solved. At such times, you need someone who stays besides you, maybe not to help you out, but to at least accompany you to fight with your problems. In such situations, keep in mind that while heading towards your dreams there's never 'I' but always 'We' which will help you cross the tough paths towards success. Many will come in your life who will often make fun of your scars. They may blame you for the flaws for your earlier failure and that's how they will refuse to stand with you; because you are not flaws and you have scars. But those who accept to stay besides you to accompany you with your flaws and scars; never lose those people because they will be your true companions always.

Remember one thing, 'Warriors with wound always intend to have a winning strategy!'

LIVING a life peacefully according to your own thoughts, yet giving a shape to your character as per the demand of the present situation is a quality which everyone needs to own. Adjustments are often resulted into profits of oneself when there's dedication towards work and joy in the things which are being performed. But, changing yourself according to someone's suggestion or maybe someone's urge towards changes in you is something which should be avoided.

There are a lot of people who are not able to mould themselves according to the environment around them because of the introvert nature they have. Being introvert is not at all holding and flaws in it. It's simply being limited to only oneself and that's beautiful in the way it is. The introvert people receive joy by being with themselves. Being introvert means able to give maximum time and attention to just your own self as there are times when you forget that it's your soul who needs the most attention and that too just from you. Yet, no grudges with those who are extroverts. They enjoy their lifestyle being socially active and getting mixed with the new people they meet. Maybe they find cheerfulness in that.

My Shradha Dili once told a very inspirational lines to me as per her beliefs; unknowingly following the words similar to what Bruce Lee once quoted. She said that, "Sometimes you have to be like water. You have to mould yourself according to the environment which is being created around you. But, make sure that you're adapting changes till a limit." I learnt a lesson for life! You may be an introvert or an extrovert, but sometimes you have to step out of your comfort zone and shape yourself according to the atmosphere you're in. Being sad in a joyous environment or vice versa; that doesn't fit anywhere. It's like fixing a circle shape into a rectangular one; none is going to adjust as per the other one's shape. So, it's better to be the way the situation demands to be and by the time accepting the changes till a certain extent. Thomas à Kempis, a German-Dutch canon once quoted- "If you cannot mould yourself entirely as you would wish, how can you expect other people to be entirely to your liking? You first need to accept the adaptations which the new phase demands, make it your interest and work accordingly because if you aren't able to move ahead for your own self then you really cannot demand vivid changes from others too, but be yourself by being slightly different yet better because positive and self-growth changes never get wasted; they're going to be helpful to you always!"

MANY of us are very short-tempered, while many of us are very calm and gentle. Some are soft-hearted, while some of us have a strong heart. We are often very different from each other. None of us is same in anything. The soft-hearted ones try to become stronger by learning to hide the overflow of emotions. It is a good thing after to not let the emotions pour out more than required.

But, the angry ones aren't able to learn to be calm even after many trials because they have made the benevolent anger as their habit. Finding peace is a solution to the overwhelming anger.

Somewhere told me that, "Calmness comes with maturity." I totally believe on that. When I just entered the teenage; the adolescence; I used to get angry on things easily. If anything went wrong even after planning harder, instead of tears flowing out from my eyes, anger was clearly visible. Yes, I was very short-tempered and I agree to that fact. But, learning to become calm often comes when you are on the way of becoming mature enough to handle things is a positive feedback to your own self.

Maturity is when you realise that, while taking positive steps towards your dreams, believing in your-

on their way. People will blame you for being self-centred, but there's nothing bad at all in loving yourself. When you achieve your dreams without giving attention to the negative thoughts, you will realise that avoiding sorrowful instances is good for you. Staying silent and staying focussed to your own job isn't anything which will give you loss. Keeping quiet when there's no need of words to be uttered out; that's called maturity; just wait for that day when you can call yourself a mature person. You will be sure able to have control on your emotions; your overwhelming happiness, sorrow, pain, tears, anger; once you start learning to become mature!

Is 'peace' being avoided?

EARLIER when COVID-19 cases were decreasing and things were getting back to normal, I really thought that now it's the time to find and feel peace. Spending most of the time between four walls of either my house or my educational institution, I had framed my life somewhere between bricks where at times I used to fly out to allow the reality to fix me in a proper way; I have always tried to accept the reality and truth no matter how hard it turns out to be. But this time, I think I am not having that strong soul strength to accept the fact that there's a war going to which some people are calling it as beginning of 'World War III'. Yes that was obvious because the way both the territories are fighting against each other proves that it's a big war and its results are going to be faced and suffered by the whole world; directly or indirectly. I belong to the generation where every human being is in search of peace and kindness; where each individual works not to earn a capital but to earn inner satisfaction and peace. And, I have clearly observed that even I am in a frustrated mood at times and in return from my life want peace of mind and soul. I demand calmness when I allow my peace to get disturbed. I am a teenager who is having dreams in eyes to be fulfilled. Yet if I get back to the war zone, I realise that people are fighting moreover to show how loaded they are with weapons and ammunition. There may be a genuine reason for them but I do not find acceptance to the bitter statement that war, too, can give good results.

I belong to the country where the people have decided to take a neutral decision; to be in favour of none, and that's something on personal front I feel is a good decision. I am never going to be in the favour of violence because where there's mental peace is at risk then it's better to avoid it and stay safe. I feel mental disturbance just my hearing the news about the war fights, it's clearly beyond my imagination what state the people of those respective countries must be in. It's horrifying! I somehow feel that peace is getting extinct, is it? Being a responsible individual of our respective countries, we own the duty to keep our mental and social conditions stable and maintain the stability in health of mental and physical peace of others too. But I still feel like questioning that is peace not a matter of concern?

Between Hopes and Expectations!

*Whenever life has taken my test,
I often hope to be the best.
With a high HOPE of perfection, Gradually gets changed into anticipation.*

*How am I going to handle the troubles on my way which came?
Let's not expect hardships; mind exclaim.
That's when hopes turn into expectations which are high,
It's like a hard rock kept on the wings which can fly.*

*A single-step difference it is between expectation and hopes,
After that ideas seem useless and scope-
less are the scopes.
A hard task then it turns out to be,
Where expectations arise and hopes are harder to see.*

*Yet there's a ray of satisfaction,
A secret to happiness without any exclamation.
Gratitude is a pure secret to happiness,
Satisfaction also leads to joyousness.*

*A delicate rope of hope it is to handle,
Breaking it leads to expectation's scandal.
Still a strong string of contentment,
Leads to cherrishfulness's enrichment.*

*Between hopes and expectations,
Lies a belief of salvation.
Where heart expects nothing,
Where mind feels as if had everything.*
